Greetings!

The temperatures are warming up, and so are the activities at the Water Court Plaza where the Jointly Maintained Reading Room is located. Be sure to check out the events happening on Friday and Saturday evenings with the Grand Performances, a free summer concert series offered. Here is the website: www.grandperformances.org.

If you would like to volunteer during the Grand Performances in June, July, and/or August, it would be wonderful to have the lights on and the doors open. There are many people who come to the shows, and opportunities to share Christian Science. Call or email if you would like to come in on a Friday or Saturday night (typically between 7:30 p.m. and 10:00 p.m.), and we will make sure another experienced volunteer will be here to open up and keep you company. Hope to hear from you soon!

Also remember that the downtown reading room has lots of resources! If you would like to come and browse through the bound Christian Science Monitors, Sentinels, or Journals we have them all here! There are lots of products on our shelves that you might not be able to find anywhere else, so be sure to check out the books, CDs, and other merchandise we have for sale when you come next time too.

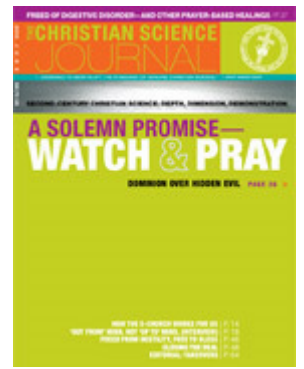

After a little over a year and a half here at the Jointly Maintained Reading Room, I will be moving on to a new job in mid July. It has been a pleasure working here, and I know that whoever is the next Librarian will have a blast!

Thank you,
Ame Schneider
